CHURCH DOINGS AND RELIGIOUS TALK

Chronicle of Particular Interest to Church-Going People.

R. R. Y. M. C. A.'S ANNIVERSARY

Will Be Celebrated Monday Night and President Sloan, of the D. L. and W. Co., Will Be Present—News of the Big Christian Endeavor Convention—Notes of Religious News, Tomorrow's Services in the Various Churches.

The celebration next Monday evening of the sixteenth anniversary of the Railroad branch of the Young Men's Christian association should be a red-letter event. Samuel Sloan, president of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, will be present and will make an address as will G. A. Warburton, secretary of the New York city branch and S. M. Bard, the Pennsylvania state secretary. Bard's orchestra will furnish music and J. Henry McKinley, tenor, will be among the entertainers. Robert F. McKenna will preside.

Monday's meeting of the Pastors' union was not productive of any business of importance owing to the absence from the city of so many Methodist ministers who are at the annual Wyoming conference. There were present: Revs. Bell, Logan, DeCruick, Dixon, Moffatt, Welsh and O'Neil. Only two more meetings will be held before an adjournment is made for the summer.

Christian Endeavorers should note that San Francisco is the metropolis of a state whose area of nearly 100,000 square miles furnishes every variety of climate, and a greater diversity of agricultural products than any other state in the union. The orange, the fig and the olive, as well as the fruits and nuts of more temperate climes, are all found in this wonderful state. The city by the Golden Gate, besides being the commercial capital of this vast domain possesses some of the most beautiful scenery of the world. The world-famed Golden Gate, the city house, the Seal rocks and the wonderful Golden Gate park are all features of much interest. Within a few hours' ride of San Francisco are bits of the most beautiful scenery in the world. A little greater distance are found many marvels of nature, such as the Yosemite valley and the Big trees. California is famous for the hospitality of her citizens, and San Francisco will not fail on this occasion to maintain the reputation of the state for the hospitality of her citizens. Her public-spirited merchants have subscribed to the convention fund with a generosity hitherto unknown in the annals of Christian Endeavor. More than three-fifths of the entire cost of $25,000 will be paid in by the business men of San Francisco, the Endeavorers being thus relieved of a great financial burden.

The current number of The Shepherd's Crook, a publication issued in the city of San Francisco, contains the following in reference to the proposed Hotel of the order at Elmhurst: "The proposed Hotel at Elmhurst when built will provide for the following classes of unfurnished rooms: A home for convalescents and other poor men that need rest and refreshment; a refuge for such as desire through God's grace to renounce the soul destroying habit of intemperance. A beautiful site of about three acres of land has been secured to us for this purpose. The building will cost about $5,000. It would be very desirable if every room could be a memorial to dear ones in Paradise, or as a thank-offering for God's goodness and mercy. We shall be glad to confer with any one and to show the plans of the proposed building, and to give any other information in regard to the work. We shall be most thankful for subscriptions and donations toward the building. Subscriptions and donations may be sent to Brother Francis, 812 Capone avenue, or to the treasurer, John B. Bessell, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Paymaster's office, Scranton, Pa.
